Over the last half century, the University of Georgia women's basketball program has established itself among the nation's most elite. The Lady Bulldogs boast remarkable postseason success, securing bids to 36 of 43 NCAA tournaments with five trips to the NCAA Final Four. Georgia ranks in the top-10 nationally in NCAA Tournament victories, Sweet-16 appearances and Final Fours.

1000 WINS

The Lady Bulldogs reached a unique milestone in 2020. During its game against East Carolina, Georgia became one of just six programs in the Southeastern Conference to reach the 1,000-win mark.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credentials for members of the media to all regular-season home games can be obtained through the Sports Communications Office. Credentials will be issued on a game-by-game basis. Please contact Tray Littlefield.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Accredited photographers and videographers working on assignment will be issued credentials to access the designated camera locations. Use of flash is prohibited at all times and all strobe units must be approved by the UGA Sports Communications office.

SEC TOURNEY CREDENTIALS

Credentials to the 2026 Southeastern Conference Tournament, March 4-8 in Greenville, S.C. can be requested through Tammy Wilson at the Southeastern Conference . All credential requests will approved/denied by the SEC via this process.

INTERVIEW SCHEDULE

Georgia generally practices in the afternoon. Most interviews will take place before practice around 1:30 p.m. Interviews will be conducted outside of the team's practice facility at Stegeman Coliseum. That schedule may change as the season progresses.

Media are encouraged to arrange for feature-type interviews during pre- or post-practice sessions instead of after games. The preferred day for interviews is Tuesdays throughout the season.

PRACTICE & GAME VIDEO

Interviews with Coach ABE, as well as practice and/or game video footage, can be found on the Sports Communications ftp site. Weekly interviews previewing upcoming games will be placed on the site by approximately 5:30 p.m. each Tuesday.

In addition, video featuring game highlights and post-game interviews with both head coaches will be offered for most home contests. That information will generally be available by 5:30 p.m. for weekend games and by 10:30 p.m. for weeknight contests.

Contact Tray Littlefield for instructions on how to access the ftp site. Media needing to obtain additional highlights of the Lady Bulldogs may do so by contacting Littlefield

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

All media will enter Stegeman Coliseum at Gate D.

Press seating is located above Portal 2 in section K of the lower bowl. Radio broadcast positions are at the scorer's table. TV announcer location is on the floor across from the scorer's table. We will have flip cards available at your seat. Live stats are available via statbroadcast.com.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Interviews will be conducted in the Stegeman Coliseum press room. Media will be surveyed with 3:00 remaining in the game to determine which players will be available.

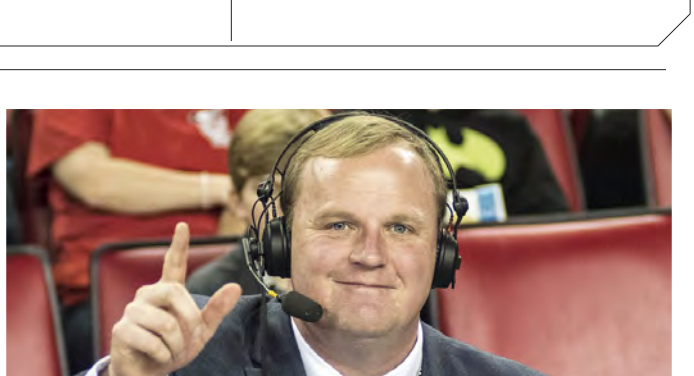
LADY BULLDOGS BROADCAST STATEWIDE



Jeff Dantzler, one of the top play-by-play announcers in the nation, has spent over 30 years calling Lady Bulldog basketball games.

Lady Bulldog broadcasts are part of the Georgia Bulldogs Sports Network. The Georgia Bulldogs Sports Network provides radio network production for many major college athletic programs in the SEC and other prominent conferences nationwide. Day-to-day management of the network is overseen by the company's "Georgia Bulldogs Sports Marketing" staff in Athens, which also handles the sales and marketing for the University of Georgia Athletic Association.

Jeff Dantzler will return as the voice of Lady Bulldog Basketball this season. Dantzler became the play-by-play voice of the Lady Bulldogs in 1993. He has called some of the greatest moments in the program's storied history, including the 1995, 1996 and 1999 Final Fours; the 1996, 1997 and 2000 SEC Championship seasons; and the 2001 SEC Tournament title. Dantzler also has served primary play-by-play voice of Georgia Baseball since 1997, including trips to the College World Series in 2001, 2004, 2006 and 2008. In addition, he co-hosts the Georgia Bulldogs Sports Network's pre- and post-game shows and a Sunday brunch call-in show for football, and is a contributing columnist to Bulldawg Illustrated. From 1997-2008, Dantzler also served as the color analyst for Georgia men's basketball games.

In Athens, Lady Bulldog games have aired on WRFC AM 960 The Ref since 2007-08. Lady Bulldog Basketball games will air on georgiadogs.com, the official UGA app, and on The Varsity Network App, as well as the following stations this year:

WRFC AM 960 (Athens - Full Schedule) and WXKT FM 103.7 (Gainesville - Full Schedule),

Stegeman Coliseum has provided the Lady Bulldogs with a superior home court advantage for decades. Georgia has compiled a 545-140 record in 50 seasons of competition at Stegeman, a winning percentage of 84 percent. From Dec. 2, 1984 through Dec. 4, 1987, Georgia recorded 40-consecutive home victories. At the time, that streak ranked eighth all-time in NCAA history. It still stands as the 25th-longest home winning streak in the history of Division I women's hoops.

Christened in 1964 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and for years it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

Stegeman has undergone major renovations the last few years, most recently a new weight room was added, while the ceiling was painted black this past summer. In 2017, renovations included a center-hung scoreboard, new seats, significantly upgraded sound and lighting systems and additional LED signage.The current projects follow a $13-million renovation in 2010 that transformed Stegeman's concourses, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000-square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena.

In addition, Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

Year 4 for Coach ABE

Coach ABE is entering her 21st season overall as head coach and fourth year at Georgia. She has led her teams to a remarkable 16 conference titles and 12 NCAA tournament bids in stops at Missouri State, Albany, UCF and Georgia. Overall, Coach ABE's teams have compiled a 419-206 record.

Transfer, Freshman Classes Rank Among Nation's Best

Georgia signed impressive transfer portal and freshman classes in 2025. UGA's transfer portal class was ranked as high as No. 5 nationally (247sports.com) and the freshman class was ranked No. 18 nationally (by ESPN). The Lady Bulldogs are one of three SEC teams, joining Tennessee and LSU, to rank in the top-5 in the transfer portal and top-20 in freshman class rankings.

The Lady Bulldogs' five transfers include Dani Carnegie (Georgia Tech), Enjulina Gonzalez (Miami Ohio), Rylie Theuerkauf (Wake Forest), Aicha Ndour (Wichita State) and Vera Ojenuwa (Arkansas). This year's freshman class includes Jocelyn Faison (Atlanta).

25-26 PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

Turner, Wollfolk Return to Athens

Georgia was the only conference team to have two SEC All-Freshman Team selections (Mia Woolfolk and Trinity Turner) last season, and both return this year. With 12.2 ppg, Turner was the first Georgia freshman to finish as the team's leading scorer in a season since 2004 SEC and National Freshman of the Year Tasha Humphrey. Woolfolk finished the 2025 regular season on a tear, scoring in double figures in all three games, including a 20-point effort in the win at No. 11 Tennessee.

Highly-Ranked "Portal Get" Carnegie Joins Lady Bulldogs

Among five portal additions is 2025 ACC Sixth Woman of the Year and five-time ACC Rookie of the Week Dani Carnegie from Georgia Tech. Ranked No. 10 overall on ESPN's list for top transfer for 2025-26, Carnegie led her team in 3-pointers made and was seventh in the ACC with 66 total 3-pointers last year. Carnegie moved to the state of Georgia at age 12 from New York and finished her prep career at Grayson High School in Loganville, Ga.

Help in the Post

The Lady Bulldogs inked Arkansas' leading rebounder in Vera Ojenuwa, who averaged 6.2 board per game last season. Georgia also added 6-foot-6 center Aicha Ndour from Wichita State.

Theuerkauf A Top Target

Georgia signed Wake Forest's leading scorer Rylie Theuerkauf in this year's transfer portal class. The incoming junior and native of Tenafly, N.J., led the Demon Deacons with 12 ppg, improving her scoring by 8 ppg compared to her freshman campaign. She finished last season by hitting double figures in scoring in 11 of her final 12 games.

Georgia Family

Coach ABE preaches family and culture, and it shows in the longevity of her staff. Associate Head Coach Tahnee Balerio and assistants Isoken Uzamere, Nykesha Sales and Ebone Henry-Harris have been with Coach ABE a combined 43 seasons!

A Winning Tradition

Georgia women's basketball stands among the most elite programs in the SEC and the country. The Lady Bulldogs rank second in SEC history and 19th nationally with 1,086 all-time wins – one of just six league teams to reach the 1,000-victory mark (Tennessee, Georgia, LSU, South Carolina, Auburn and Texas). Georgia is tied for second in total conference victories (344) and third, behind Tennessee and South Carolina, with seven league championships.

'95, '96 Teams Celebrate 30 Year Anniversary

This year marks the 30-year anniversary of two of the greatest teams in Georgia history across all sports.

The Lady Bulldogs went on a remarkable run during the 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons. Both squads reached the Final Four, with the Lady Bulldogs finishing national runner-up in 1996.

La'Keshia Frett, Tracy Henderson, Saudia Roundtree, Kedra Holland and Tiffany Walker guided the 1994-95 team to a 28-5 overall record en route to the Final Four. A year later, the 1996 squad became the first team in the program's storied history to win the SEC regular season title and earn a trip to the Final Four.

Last season, TrinityTurner became the first Georgia freshman to lead the team in scoring since 2004 SEC and National Freshman of the Year Tasha Humphrey.

Wake Forest transfer Rylie Theuerkauf led the Demon Deacons with 12.0 ppg in 2024-25. She also knocked in 80 percent from the free-throw line and was second on the team with 34 made 3-pointers.

FOURTH SEASON AT GEORGIA (21ST OVERALL) // RECORD: 419-206 (.670)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Record: 419-206 (.670) in 20 seasons
- 2023 Atlanta Tipoff Club Whack Hyder College Coach of the Year
- Developed Diamond Battles and Javyn Nicholson into All-SEC players and mentored All-Freshman Team selections Mia Woolfolk and Trinity Turner in her first three seasons in Athens
- Her teams have earned bids to 12 NCAA tournaments
- Has compiled 13 20-win seasons in 20 years as head coach
- Led Georgia to its most wins in five seasons (22) and its first win over a Power-5 team in the NCAA tournament since 2013 in her first year
- Four-time Conference Coach of the Year
-16 conference championships (nine tournament and seven regular season)

Katie Abrahamson-Henderson — a former Lady Bulldog who has experienced outstanding success as a head coach over the last two decades — was named the third full-time head coach in Georgia women's basketball history on March 26, 2022.

In 20 seasons as head coach, Coach ABE's teams have compiled an impressive 419-206 record — an average of 20 victories per year. Her squads have also won seven conference regular season titles, nine league tournament crowns, have earned 12 NCAA Tournament berths and 15 postseason bids overall.

Coach ABE had an impactful first season in Athens. She led Georgia to 22 wins -- the program's highest win total in five years -- and a first-round NCAA tournament victory against Florida State, marking Georgia's first win against a Power 5 team in the NCAA tournament since 2013.

Diamond Battles was named to the 2023 All-SEC Second Team and the SEC All-Defensive Team after ranking among the SEC's best in scoring (14.7 ppg), steals (59) and assists (96).

Before being named Georgia's head coach, Coach ABE led UCF to historic success. The 2021-22 UCF Knights set the school record for most wins in a season with a 26-4 overall mark, including a 14-1 record in league play, on its way to winning the American Athletic Conference regular season and tournament championships. The Knights advanced to the NCAA tournament, where they narrowly lost to No. 2 seed UConn, 52-47, in the second round.

For her efforts, Coach ABE was named the 2022 AAC Coach of the Year, marking the fourth time in her career she has earned league Coach of the Year honors. Under her guidance, Battles earned AAC Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and placed on the conference's first-team squad.

Her teams hit milestone after milestone with postseason bids each year (excluding the 2020 COVID season). In 2018-19, UCF earned the program's first-ever at-large bid to the NCAA tournament and followed with yet another trip and the highest seed in school history in 2021.

Coach ABE led UCF to a 131-49 record in six seasons. After being named head coach in 2016, her impact was felt immediately. Her team finished 21-12 that year — a 14-game improvement from the previous season and the second-best turnaround among Division I women's basketball programs.

Her 2018-19 squad finished with a 26-7 record and 13-3 mark in The American to finish in second place. This came after her 2017-18 team tied the program's Division I record for wins in a season and made back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time.

Prior to UCF, Coach ABE spent six seasons at Albany (2010-16), where she led the Great Danes to a combined nine America East Conference tournament and regular season titles, including four Players of the Year awards, four Defensive Players of the Year awards, one Scholar-Athlete of the Year, one Rookie of the Year and nine first-team all-conference selections.

She was chosen as the America East Coach of the Year three times, helping the Great Danes to a combined 83-13 record in league play. Albany won 38 consecutive America East regular games, which set a new league record and, at the time, was a Division I record.

Coach ABE guided Missouri State to three Missouri Valley Conference tournament championships, a pair of MVC regular season titles and three NCAA berths from 2002-07.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR

TAHNEE BALERIO

(4TH SEASON AT GEORGIA // 16TH OVERALL)

Tahnee Balerio (pronounced TAWN-ee buh-LARE-ee-oh), who has coached and developed some of the best point guards in the country, was named the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for Georgia women's basketball on April 8, 2022.

A two-time All-Missouri Valley Conference selection, team captain and MVP as a player for Coach ABE at Missouri State, Balerio has spent the last decade and a half building programs into perennial winners. Her responsibilities include the development of the guards, recruiting and opponent scouting reports.

Balerio made an immediate impact in her first season at Georgia, leading the program to its most wins in five years, while helping develop Diamond Battles into an All-SEC guard. Overall, the Lady Bulldogs ranked fourth in the SEC in assists with 15.0 per contest, with Alisha Lewis leading all league players in that category.

During the 2024-25 campaign, Balerio helped develop Trinity Turner into one of the top guards in the SEC. Turner was named to the league's All-Freshman Team after becoming the first Georgia rookie to lead the team in scoring since 2004 SEC and National Freshman of the Year Tasha Humphrey.

Overall, Balerio's teams have garnered nine NCAA tournament bids and won five conference crowns.

She was part of a staff that led UCF to five postseason appearances, three NCAA bids, and the 2022 American Athletic Conference regular season and conference titles. The Knights earned their first NCAA tournament appearance, first NCAA win and highest-ever seeding.

Throughout her career, Balerio has coached some of the top guards in the nation.

Under her guidance, Battles was named the 2022 AAC Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and AAC Tournament MVP, while Lewis was tabbed the 2021 Newcomer and Sixth Player of the Year.

Kay Kay Wright was named to the 2020 Nancy Lieberman Award Watch List and was recognized among the nation's best with a spot on the Naismith Trophy National Player of the Year Watch List. Wright was a consensus first-team All-AAC selection and finished her career second in assists (494) and third in points (1,614) in UCF history. The Preseason AAC Player of the Year (the first in program history to earn that distinction) is the only Knight to score 1,600 points, dish out over 400 assists and record over 250 steals in her career.

Prior to her stint in Orlando, Balerio spent six seasons at Albany, serving as an assistant coach for four years and the director of operations for two seasons. Albany captured four America East regular seasons crowns during those six years. Balerio witnessed Imani Tate post the fourth-highest scoring season in program history as Zakiya Saunders —another all-conference selection — broke the school record for assists and ranked sixth in the NCAA with 6.9 assists per game.

Balerio played at Missouri State from 2005-08 under Coach ABE. She was a team captain, a two-time MVP, a two-time All-Conference selection and earned Scholar Athlete honors. Balerio led the Bears in scoring during the 2006-07 season, averaging 18.7 points per game – tops in the Missouri Valley Conference.

After graduation, she was the head junior varsity and assistant varsity coach at Hillcrest High School in Springfield, Mo.

Balerio earned her degree in entertainment management from Missouri State. She is married to Lily Grenci, and the couple has a 3-year old daughter named Zelda Lynn Balerio, born March 23, 2022.

ASSISTANT COACH

ISOKEN UZAMERE

(4TH SEASON AT GEORGIA // 14TH OVERALL)

Isoken Uzamere (pronounced E-suh-ken ooh-ZAH-mer-ay) was named an assistant coach for Georgia women's basketball on April 12, 2022.

Uzamere works with the post players and assists with recruiting and scouting.

In her first season at Georgia, Uzamere helped lead the team to its most wins in five years, with 22 victories and a NCAA tournament appearance. She works primarily with Georgia's post players, helping Javyn Nicholson double her points per game and increase her rebounds by three per contest. She also played a crucial role in developing Brittney Smith into one of the top post players in the SEC.

During the 2024-25 season, Coach EAS helped develop Mia Woolfolk into one of the top newcomers in the SEC. Woolfolk had a strong finish to her freshman year, eventually earning a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

"Coach "EAS" has all the values you look for when it comes to knowledge of the game, skill development and recruiting," Coach "ABE" said. "The way she connects with players, recruits and their parents make her one of the best in the business. She has developed first-team All Conference and Player of the Year talent. I have no doubt she will continue to do that with our current post players here at Georgia. As I've said many times, the number one reason I coach is to empower young women. Coach "EAS" embodies just that -- she is a tremendous person who will be an outstanding example for our team."

Uzamere spent four seasons at Albany from 2012-16, before joining the Knights prior to the 2016-17 campaign. This past year at UCF, she helped Brittney Smith develop into one of the top forwards in the league as she earned AAC Sixth Player of the Year honors as a two-time All-Conference selection. Forward Masseny Kaba also garnered All-AAC accolades.

Under her guidance, Nyala Shuler finished her career ranked fourth in school history with 837 rebounds and finished in UCF's career top-10 in blocks.

Uzamere was part of a staff that led UCF to five postseason appearances, three NCAA bids and the 2022 American Athletic Conference regular season and conference titles. The Knights earned their first NCAA tournament appearance, first NCAA win and highest-ever seeding.

At Albany, Uzamere was a graduate assistant from 2012-14 and served as an assistant coach from 2014-16. During her time there, the team won four America East titles with four NCAA Tournament berths, which included the team's first-ever NCAA Tournament win in 2016 against No. 5 seed Florida.

In addition to her on-court coaching duties, she had many roles during her time at Albany. She worked with the post players, oversaw managers and student assistants, was the strength and conditioning and nutrition liaison and assisted with scouting.

In 2016, her post players accumulated numerous accolades. She helped guide forward Shereesha Richards to recognition as a two-time Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American. Richards picked up her third-straight America East Player of the Year award in 2016 and was also named to the America East All-Conference First Team and All-Defensive Team. Forward/Center Tiana-Jo Carter was the conference's selection for Sixth Player of the Year.

Uzamere played forward for Hofstra and was a two-time Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic player in her junior and senior seasons. She served as the head coach of the Long Island Knights AAU Program in 2012 and was a counselor and coach at Game 7 Sports.

ASSISTANT COACH

NYKESHA SALES

(4TH SEASON AT GEORGIA // 10TH OVERALL)

Nykesha Sales — an eight-time WNBA All-Star and one of the greatest players in women's basketball history —was named an assistant coach for Georgia women's basketball on April 12, 2022.

Sales, a two-time All-American, Big EAST Player and Defensive Player of the Year and national champion at UConn (1994-98), served as an assistant coach at UCF for six seasons, leading the Knights to unprecedented and historic success. In her first year at Georgia, that success continued as the program recorded its most wins in five seasons on its way to the NCAA tournament.

Sales' responsibilities include the development of guards, scheduling, opponent scouting reports and recruiting.

"Nykesha Sales was one of the greatest players in our sport and has become an exceptional coach over the last seven years," Coach ABE said. "As a former WNBA All-Star and collegiate national champion, Coach Sales gives our student-athletes a unique perspective of what it takes to win at the most elite levels. She made an immediate impact on our program at UCF as she developed All-Conference players each season. I am excited for our current team here at Georgia and our recruits to learn from one of the best."

In her first season as a collegiate coach in 2016-17, Sales helped Aliyah Gregory become the first UCF player to earn American Athletic Conference First Team accolades, while teammate Zykira Lewis also earned All-Conference honors.

In 2018-19, Kayla Thigpen was named The American Sixth Player of the Year, becoming the first Knight to earn an AAC individual award. In 2020-21, Sales helped Tay Sanders earn AAC All-Conference honors — a distinction she earned once against in 2022.

Sales herself was an outstanding player who led the Huskies through remarkable success in the 1990's.

She played at UConn from 1994-98, and finished her career as the Huskies' all-time leading scorer and still ranks among the top five there with 2,178 career points. She also owns the school record for steals with 447.

Sales helped UConn capture the 1995 NCAA Division I National Championship, a Final Four appearance in 1996 and two Elite 8 berths. She was a two-time WBCA and Associated Press All-American, the 1998 BIG EAST Player of the Year and was first-time All-BIG EAST in 1997 and 1998.

Sales graduated from UConn in 1998 with a degree in business management. She played for the Orlando Miracle/Connecticut Sun from 1999-2007 and was selected as an eight-time WNBA All-Star. Sales led the Connecticut Sun to two WNBA Finals and still reigns as the franchise's all-time leading scorer (3,955 points; 14.3 ppg), which ranks among the WNBA's all-time top 30. In addition, she finished her career with 1,157 rebounds, 683 assists and 490 steals.

In 1997, she earned a gold medal with Team USA at the Women's World University Games in Sicily, Italy. Sales was the team's leading scorer, averaging 18.3 points per game. Later in 2000, she was named an alternate on the 2000 USA Basketball Olympic Team.

Sales also played professionally overseas for seven seasons in Turkey, Latvia, Poland, Czech Republic and Bosnia.

Sales was a member of the inaugural class (2006) of inductees to the University of Connecticut women's basketball "Huskies of Honor" recognition program.

From 2013-16, she worked with the Connecticut Sun as a community liaison.

ASSISTANT COACH/DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

EBONE HENRY-HARRIS

(4TH SEASON AT GEORGIA // 10TH OVERALL)

Ebone Henry Harris — one of the greatest players in University of Albany women's basketball history who was most recently on Katie Abrahamson-Henderson's staff at UCF— serves as the Georgia Lady Bulldogs' Assistant Coach/Director of Player Development.

"I am thrilled to have Ebone in Athens," Abrahamson-Henderson said. "She has been an instrumental part of our program over the last six years, and I know she will have the same impact here at Georgia. She is detail-oriented, meticulous and, as someone who has played the game at a high level, a tremendous example for our student-athletes.

"As a player, Ebone became Albany's all-time leading scorer and was also named conference Defensive Player of the Year on three occasions. Everything she did as a player was done at an elite level, and she continues to do that in her professional career."

Over six seasons at UCF, Henry-Harris has served as the assistant recruiting coordinator/video director, with a hand in nearly every facet of the program.

She helped lead UCF to its first NCAA tournament bid, first NCAA tourney win and highest-ever seeding. The Knights also captured the 2022 American Athletic Conference regular season and tournament crowns.

As a player, Henry-Harris finished her career as UAlbany's all-time leading scorer with 1,642 career points. She was the first player ever to be named a three-time America East Defensive Player of the Year and was a 2013 College Sports Mid-Major All-American.
For her efforts on the court, UAlbany also retired her No. 5 jersey.

From 2013-16, she played professionally overseas for teams in Iceland, Puerto Rico, Montenegro and Bolivia, before joining Coach 'ABE's staff at UCF.

Henry-Harris is a native of San Diego, Calif., and graduated from Albany in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in communication and rhetoric.

She is married to Jerrett Harris and the couple has a daughter, Lyric, and sons Jace and Jesiah.

DARRICE GRIFFIN
SENIOR DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Darrice Griffin was named Senior Deputy Director of Athletics January 1, 2021, after serving as Deputy Director of Athletics of Administration at UGA from December, 2017-December, 2020.

She had previously served as a senior member of the athletic administration at the University of Massachusetts from 2015-17.

In her role with the Bulldogs Griffin's responsibilities have included the day-to-day oversight responsibilities for some internal operations including Human Resources and strategic organizational advancement of the Athletics Association. She also serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator and Sports Facilitator for several sports programs. In addition, Griffin represents the Athletics Association as a member of various SEC and institutional leadership groups.

At the time she joined the Georgia staff, Griffin had served as Deputy Director of Athletics at UMASS from July, 2017-December, 2017, after holding the position of Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations/Senior Woman Administrator for two years.

As Deputy Director at UMASS she oversaw day-to-day operations relating to student-athletes, facilities and competitions, while also serving on numerous campus committees and as the liaison with many campus constituents. Additionally, Griffin was also the department's Senior Woman Administrator during her entire tenure in Amherst.

Also during her time at UMass, Griffin had administrative oversight responsibilities for a number of Minutemen sports, including football, women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, field hockey and softball. With those programs she assisted with budgeting, competitive scheduling and the well-being of coaches, staff and student-athletes.

Prior to her arrival in Amherst, Griffin spent the previous six years (2010-2015) at Columbia University, including the last four as Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sports Programs. In that role, she oversaw a number of Columbia's sports programs, was the University's liaison to Barnard College — Columbia's partner institution in New York City — and was responsible for gender and diversity initiatives within the department of athletics.

With the Lions, Griffin had oversight for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, softball and baseball. She worked alongside the offices of admissions and financial aid, while also assisting in fundraising and development initiatives for both the athletic department at-large and her assigned sport programs. Griffin played a role in several student-athlete initiatives, including Columbia's The First-Year Transition Program and The Leaders for Life Program.

Within the University itself, Griffin was an active member of the President's Advisory Committee on Sexual Assault, had a leadership role on the University Bystander Intervention Task Force and played a key role in the University-wide initiative Step-Up.

Griffin originally joined the Lions as Director of Women's Basketball Operations and Special Projects in August 2009 before moving into the senior leadership position the following summer.

A native of Seagraves, Texas, Griffin was a standout basketball student-athlete at Texas Tech, graduating in 2007 with cum laude honors in psychology. She was a four-time recipient of the Texas Tech Student-Athlete Merit Award, a two-time Academic All-Big 12 Conference honoree and was named an Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar in 2007. Griffin comes from an elite basketball family. Her mother, Tami Wilson, played at Texas Tech from 1990-92 and her sister, Teddy, also played for the Lady Raiders from 2005-08.

Griffin was the 2004 Gatorade Player of the Year in Texas. She was also an All-Texas First-Team selection and a McDonald's All-American.

JERE W. MOREHEAD
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia president on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University established a School of Medicine and completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising $1.45 billion. It also created an Innovation District, where students and faculty partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to enhance the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia.

During President Morehead's tenure, UGA has increased its research and development expenditures by over 75%. The University of Georgia ranks No. 1 among U.S. universities for the number of products brought to market based on its research, according to the annual survey by AUTM. UGA has ranked either first or second in this measure for nine consecutive years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. A UGA education is in greater demand than ever, with over 43,000 students enrolled in fall 2024 and nearly 48,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2029.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including "The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business," and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology. He also is a trustee for the Committee on Economic Development and a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

President Morehead is the Immediate Past Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Board of Governors; Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

JOSH BROOKS
J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks continues to lead the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

In the spring of 2025, Georgia won four team national championships, tying the school record for most titles in one athletics season. Overall, the Bulldogs have earned seven team national championships, 10 SEC crowns and 33 individual national championships during Brooks' four-year tenure.

Georgia finished No. 7 in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors Cup – the program's highest mark in 18 years -- as Brooks was named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year honor. The Bulldogs have boasted a record-setting student-athlete GPA in each of the last three academic campaigns, set new fundraising marks, and completed 15 capital projects.

In addition to back-to-back football national titles in 2021 and 2022, the women's tennis team has earned three conference championships, a national indoor crown and most recently a NCAA title in 2025; soccer has made the NCAA tournament in back-to-back years for only the second time in program history; both track and field teams finished national runner-up at the 2025 NCAA National Indoor Championships with the women earning the program's first-ever outdoor title, while equestrian earned national titles in 2021 and 2025.

With a focus on maintaining the University's mission of excellence in teaching and learning, Bulldog student-athletes have excelled academically. Recently, UGA swimmers Abby McCulloh (2025) and Callie Dickinson (2023) garnered the prestigious H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award – the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC. Women's tennis star Dasha Vidmanova – only the third female tennis player to win the NCAA's triple crown – was named the 2025 recipient of the Honda Award for tennis.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

January 17, 1974 – The Lady Bulldogs defeat DeKalb College, 43-42, to secure their first victory in their second game. It will be February 28, 1983 before Georgia once again sports a .500 winning percentage as a program.

January 9, 1976 – Georgia defeats Tift College, 74-48, in their season opener and first-ever game in then-Georgia Coliseum. The Lady Bulldogs go on to finish 11-9 that season, their only winning campaign prior to Andy Landers' arrival.

April 24, 1979 – In his first head coaching hiring since becoming UGA's AD, Vince Dooley names 26-year-old Andy Landers as the Lady Bulldogs' first full-time coach.

January 30, 1980 – The Lady Bulldogs thump North Georgia College, 87-42, to secure only the second winning season in school history.

June 16, 1980 – Bernadette Locke is named to the second team of the Skoal/CoSIDA Academic All-America squad.

February 16, 1981 – The Lady Dogs top Vanderbilt, 94-71, to give Georgia its first 20-win season.

March 28, 1981 – Georgia downs Arizona State, 75-73 in overtime, in Amarillo, Texas to win the WNIT.

June 2, 1981 – Janet Harris, the National Player of the Year out of Chicago's Marshall High School, signs with Georgia in the first of Landers' numerous recruiting coups.

November 18, 1981 – Landers' Lady Bulldogs enter the AP Top 20 poll for the first time in history at No. 12. Other than a two-week hiatus at the end of the 1981-82 season, Georgia remained in the poll for more than a decade until December 9, 1991.

May 4, 1982 – Janet Harris becomes only the fourth freshman ever named to the Kodak All-America team.

March 6, 1983 – Led by tournament MVP Teresa Edwards, Georgia defeats Ole Miss, 72-69, to claim the Lady Bulldogs' first SEC Championship. The No. 15 Lady Rebels represent the third ranked foe Georgia beat en route to the crown in Knoxville, Tenn. (also topping No. 8 Tennessee and No. 19 LSU).

March 2, 1984 – In the first-ever SEC post-season awards, Andy Landers is named SEC Coach of the Year and freshman Katrina McClain is named SEC Rookie of the Year.

March 3-5, 1984 – Georgia captures the SEC Tourney title by defeating three nationally-ranked teams in consecutive days, downing No. 18 Auburn, No. 9 LSU and No. 12 Alabama en route to the crown.

May 24, 1984 – Teresa Edwards earns a spot on the U.S. Olympic team, becoming the youngest member of the squad for the L.A. Games.

January 6, 1985 – In a clash between two of the nation's premier programs, Georgia defeats the sixth-ranked Southern Cal Women of Troy, 77-56, in front of 7,544 fans at the Georgia Coliseum.

March 21 & 23, 1985 – The Lady Bulldogs top No. 18 UCLA (and Jackie Joyner), 78-42, at Pauley Pavilion and then down No. 3 Long Beach State, 97-82, two days later to advance to the Final Four.

March 31, 1985 – Georgia reaches the NCAA title game by defeating Western Kentucky, 91-78, before falling to Old Dominion, 70-65.

March 3, 1986 – Katrina McClain is named MVP of the SEC Tourney after leading the Lady Dogs to their third championship in a four-year span. In three games, McClain scored 79 points (26.3 ppg), grabbed 31 rebounds (10.3 rpg), blocked seven shots and collected seven steals.

March 27, 1986 – Teresa Edwards and Katrina McClain are both named Kodak All-Americans, giving UGA two honorees for two straight years.

September 29, 1988 – Teresa Edwards scores 18 points to lead the U.S. to a 77-70 win over Yugoslavia in the Gold Medal game of the Seoul Olympics.

January 5, 1991 – The Lady Bulldogs make history as one of four teams to participate in the first-ever regular-season network TV broadcast of women's hoops, downing Iowa 62-51 on CBS.

February 23, 1991 – Georgia tops No. 5 Auburn, 70-66, before what was then a Georgia Coliseum-record crowd of 9,011 to clinch the SEC title.

November 17, 1992 – La'Keshia Frett, the nation's top prospect, becomes the fourth prep All-American to commit to UGA. The next spring, Kedra Holland, a fifth, also inks with the Lady Bulldogs.

March 6 & 8, 1993 – The Lady Bulldogs play two No. 1 teams in a span of three days at the SEC Tourney. Georgia defeats Tennessee, 73-72, in Saturday's quarterfinals and then faces Vanderbilt, the nation's new No. 1, two days later in the final.

March 3, 1994 – La'Keshia Frett is named the SEC Freshman of the Year.

March 25, 1995 – Kedra Holland explodes to score 11 of her 15 points in the last 3:15 of the Midwest Regional Championship game to lead Georgia to an 82-79 win over No. 2 Colorado.

November 9, 1995 – Sports Illustrated tabs the Lady Bulldogs as its pre-season No. 1 team.

A SWEET NATIONAL SWEEP

A day after securing Naismith National Coach and Player of the Year honors, Andy Landers and Saudia Roundtree also celebrated cutting down the nets at the 1996 Midwest Regional in Nacogdoches, Texas.

January 29, 1996 – Spurred by five straight wins over ranked foes (including No. 3 Connecticut and No. 4 Tennessee), Georgia climbs to No. 1 in both polls.

March 24, 1996 – Andy Landers and Saudia Roundtree are tabbed the Boost/Naismith National Coach and Player of the Year.

March 25, 1996 – The Lady Bulldogs knock off top-ranked Louisiana Tech, 90-76, in the Midwest Regional Championship to advance to a second straight Final Four.

July 19, 1996 – On her 32nd birthday, Teresa Edwards opens the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta with the reading of the Athlete's Oath at the Opening Ceremonies on behalf of athletes from all 197 nations competing in Atlanta.

February 19, 1997 – A Kedra Holland-Corn layup with 5.5 seconds left gives the Lady Bulldogs a 66-64 win over Florida and clinches UGA's second straight SEC Championship.

January 10, 1999 – Georgia downs LSU, 73-60, in Baton Rouge to improve to 14-0 on the season, the best start ever by the Lady Dogs.

March 22, 1999 – A youthful Georgia squad, with just one senior on the roster, pounces Iowa State, 89-71, in the Mideast Regional final to advance to a third Final Four in five years.

March 24, 1999 – Kelly Miller is named to the Kodak All-America team, the first Lady Bulldog sophomore ever to earn a spot on the prestigious unit.

March 25, 2000 – Paced by double-doubles from Tawana McDonald and Kelly Miller, Georgia tops North Carolina, 83-57, in the "Sweet 16" to give Landers his 650th win overall and the Lady Dogs' their school-record 32nd victory of the campaign.

March 29, 2000 – The U.S. Basketball Writers Association tabs Landers its National Coach of the Year, the fourth such honor of his career.

April 20, 2001 – Kelly Miller, Deanna Nolan and Coco Miller are the No. 2 (Charlotte), No. 6 (Detroit) and No. 9 (Washington) picks in the WNBA draft, marking the first time a school has supplied three first-rounders.

March 24, 2003 – No. 19-ranked Georgia, a No. 5 seed, "upsets" No. 23-ranked Rutgers, a No. 4 seed, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Bulldogs then drop a 66-63 decision to top-seeded Duke in the "Sweet 16" despite dressing out only seven players. Landers dubbed his team "The Miracle Workers."

March 6, 2004 – Janese Hardrick's running jumper with 0.9 seconds remaining in OT lifts Georgia to a 68-66 victory over No. 1 Tennessee in the semifinals of the SEC Tournament.

February 2, 2006 – Georgia shoots a sizzling 64.2 percent from the field to dispatch No. 21 Kentucky, 91-57, to supply Andy Landers with his 650th victory as the Lady Bulldogs' head coach.

March 9, 2006 – Sherill Baker and Tasha Humphrey are named among the dozen finalists for the State Farm/Wade Trophy.

February 2, 2006 – With Andy Landers in attendance, Deanna "Tweety" Nolan leads the Detroit Shock to an 80-75 win over Sacramento in the decisive Game 5 of the WNBA Finals. Nolan is named Finals Most Valuable Player and hoists the championship trophy with two more former Lady Bulldogs – Kedra Holland-Corn and Kara Braxton – who are her teammates with the Shock.

November 12, 2006 – The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame announces that Andy Landers will be inducted into its membership in 2007. The announcement is made in association with the State Farm Tip-off Classic, where the Lady Bulldogs defeat eventual NCAA Runner-up Rutgers, 78-69, despite having only seven players dressed out.

December 3, 2006 – Georgia defeats Georgia Tech, 79-69, to give his Andy Landers his 664th win with the Lady Bulldogs, making him the winningest college basketball coach in the State of Georgia's history.

BAKER REIGNS AS STEALS QUEEN

Sherill Baker established a name for herself as one of the nation's premier defensive players en route to breaking UGA's freshman and sophomore steals records.

Baker's perimeter prowess wreaked havoc at a different level during her senior season of 2005-06. Baker was dubbed the "Queen of Thieves" while leading the nation in steals by averaging 4.7 per game – 0.7 better than any other player in the country. Somewhat amazingly considering Georgia's status as a women's basketball powerhouse, Baker was the Lady Bulldogs' first team or individual NCAA statistical champion.

Baker eventually finished the campaign with 149 steals, giving her 426 for her career. Those totals not only shattered the previous Georgia season (116) and career (342) records, they easily topped the existing Southeastern Conference marks (141 and 372) as well.

GEORGIA IN THE POLLS

» Georgia first appeared in the Associated Press poll in the preseason edition of the 1981-82 campaign, the first season women's basketball transitioned from the AIAW to come under the auspices of the NCAA.

» Since the beginning of the 1981-82 campaign, Georgia has been ranked in 556 weekly AP polls, including 269 weeks in the top 10.

» Georgia was ranked in every weekly edition of the AP poll from 1982-83 through the early portion of the 1991-92 season, a span of more than nine campaigns.

» The WBCA coaches' poll was initiated beginning with the 1985-86 season and has been sponsored by USA Today throughout its existence. From 1992-93 until 1996-97, the poll was cosponsored by CNN.

THE FINAL FOUR...PLUS ONE MORE

Most women's basketball followers would agree that the 1996 season was one of the most competitive ever, with traditional powers Georgia, Connecticut, Louisiana Tech, Stanford and Tennessee all fielding excellent teams which could stake legitimate claims as the nation's top squad.

When the NCAA Tournament field was announced, the Lady Bulldogs and Lady Techsters – the only two teams to be ranked No. 1 during the regular season – found themselves bracketed together in the Midwest Regional.

La. Tech topped pre-season No. 1 Connecticut in the State Farm Tip-off Classic and occupied the top spot until a late January loss. The Lady Bulldogs, who had just defeated No. 4 Tennessee, No. 24 Auburn, No. 3 Connecticut, No. 10 Penn State and No. 20 Florida in succession, moved into the top spot for three weeks before losing at Vanderbilt. La. Tech then returned to No. 1 for the remainder of the season.

In a matchup well worthy of its billing, the Lady Bulldogs rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit en route to a 90-76 victory. Saudia Roundtree, who received Naismith National Player of the Year honors a day earlier, cemented her status as such with a career-high 37 points.

No. 5-ranked Georgia topped Stanford in the NCAA semifinals to improve to 4-0 against the four teams ahead of the Lady Bullogs in the polls, but then lost in the national title tilt.

The 1981 Lady Dogs made major strides in Georgia's ascension to one of the premier programs in the nation.

That season contained numerous milestones in the history of Lady Bulldog Basketball, including the first 20-win season, the first victory over a ranked opponent and the first-ever Georgia AIAW title.

The Lady Dogs won the state tournament just two years after being the last seed in the 1978 tourney.

Georgia completed the campaign in impressive fashion by winning the 1981 NWIT title in Amarillo, Texas, where Cynthia Collins and Wanda Holloway were tabbed NWIT All-Americans.

1983 SEC CHAMPIONS NCAA FINAL FOUR

A youthful unit with a great deal of faith in itself caught fire late in the 1983 season and rode that momentum all the way to the NCAA Final Four.

After compiling just a 4-4 SEC record in regular season, the Lady Bulldogs traveled to the SEC Tournament in Knoxville as the No. 3 seed from the SEC East. There they notched victories over three top-20 teams in three days to capture Georgia's first SEC Championship.

After dispatching North Carolina and Indiana, Georgia faced Tennessee for a fourth time during the campaign. While the Lady Vols captured both regular-season meetings quite convincingly, the Lady Dogs secured their second victory over UT in the post-season to win the Mideast Regional in South Bend, Ind.

The Cinderella run ended at the Final Four where Cheryl Miller-USC dispatched Georgia en route to the NCAA title.

The 1983-84 Lady Bulldogs produced the first 30-win season in the history of Georgia Basketball and spent the entire campaign ranked among the nation's top-four teams.

Georgia secured its second-straight SEC Championship on its home floor at the then-Georgia Coliseum in Athens in dramatic fashion.

After cruising past No. 18 Auburn in the SEC quarterfinals, the Lady Dogs had to rally from a 16-point second half deficit to top No. 9 LSU in the semifinals.

Georgia broke open a tight title game with Alabama early in the half and withstood every Crimson Tide rally. Teresa Edwards, Janet Harris and Wanda Holloway all earned all-tourney honors.

1985 NCAA RUNNER-UP

The 1985 Lady Bulldogs fell one win shy of claiming the national title, rolling through their first four NCAA Tourney foes by more than 20 points per game and leading by nine points late in the first half of the national championship game.

After dispatching Tennessee Tech, Andy Landers's alma mater, in the first round, the Lady Bulldogs traveled to historic Pauley Pavilion where they throttled No. 18 UCLA and upset top-seeded Long Beach State.

After topping Western Kentucky, the Lady Dogs opened up a 31-22 lead over Old Dominion in the NCAA final before the Monarchs trimmed that edge to one point at halftime.

The first 10 minutes of the second half featured no less than a dozen lead changes before fouls began to mount on UGA. Teresa Edwards fouled out with 8:10 left and Katrina McClain followed at the 5:34 mark and ODU went on a run 15-9 thereafter.

The most successful Georgia team from a rankings standpoint was the 1986 Lady Dogs, who spent the entire season ranked either No. 2 or No. 3 in the nation.

Georgia sported an impressive 26.0-point average margin of victory, including an even more impressive 19.8-point advantage in its 10 victories over ranked foes.

That season also capped the careers of the most successful senior class in UGA history. Teresa Edwards, Lisa O'Connor and Susie Gardner helped lead Georgia to a combined 116-7 record (.943), three SEC Championships (1983, 1984 and 1986), two Final Fours (1983, 1985) and a national runner-up finish (1985).

1991 SEC CHAMPIONS

Georgia's 1991 Lady Bulldogs raced through the SEC to a perfect 8-0 record in league play to set up a monumental date with Auburn for the conference title.

Before what was then a Georgia Coliseum-record crowd of 9,011, the Lady Dogs completed their undefeated run through the SEC with a 70-66 win over the 1989 and 1990 NCAA runner-up.

Camille Lowe poured in a game-high 26 points and Tammye Jenkins chipped in a double-double of 13 points and 11 rebounds to lead the Lady Dogs to that win and secure Georgia's fourth SEC Championship in a nine-year span.

Lowe and Stacey Ford earned All-SEC recognition, while Andy Landers was tabbed as the SEC Coach of the Year.

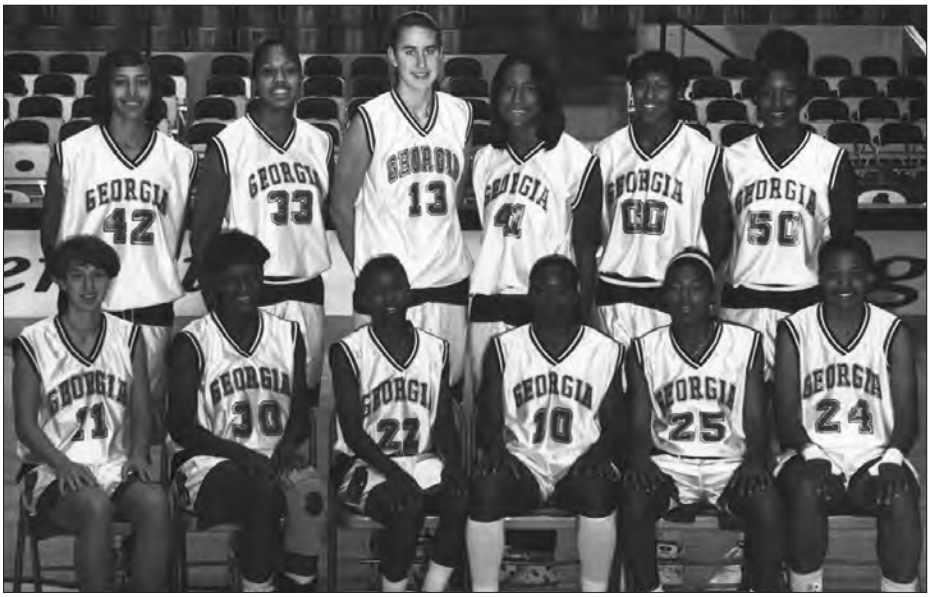
2 SEC Tourney (Chattanooga, Tenn.)
3 NCAA 1st & 2nd Rounds (Athens)
4 NCAA Midwest (Des Moines, Iowa)
5 NCAA Final Four (Minneapolis, Minn.)



Seated (L-R): Rachel Powell, Latrese Bush, Kim Thompson, Saudia Roundtree, Kedra Holland and Stephanie Wheeler. Standing: Brandi Decker, Tracy Henderson, Dorothy Sanders, Tiffany Walker, La'Keshia Frett and Tracy Walls.

Fueled by a mix of six stellar sophomores and the 1994 National Junior College Player of the Year, the 1995 Lady Dogs played well throughout the season and then upped its intensity in the post-season to earn a Final Four bid.

Georgia spent the campaign ranked between No. 18 and No. 8 in the AP poll and eventually earned the No. 3 seed for the Midwest Regional.

Georgia's thrilling win over No. 2 Colorado delivered the Lady Dogs to the Final Four. Kedra Holland scored 11 of her 15 points during the final 3:30 of the "Elite Eight" matchup to amazingly turn a seven-point deficit into an 82-79 victory.

Georgia then became the "home" team for the Final Four in Minneapolis, the hometown of Georgia sophomores Brandi Decker and Tracy Henderson.

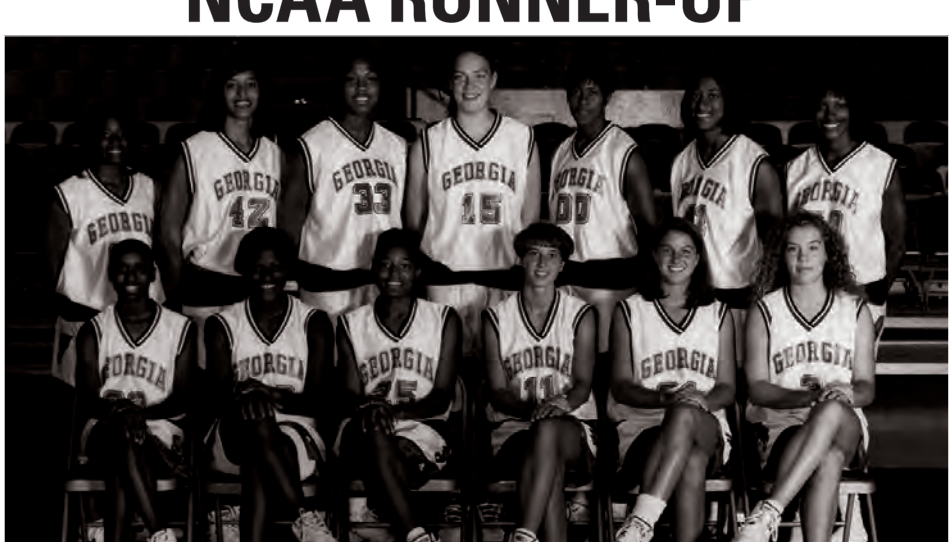
1996 SEC CHAMPIONS NCAA RUNNER-UP



Seated (L-R): Kim Thompson, Latrese Bush, Kedra Holland, Rachel Powell, Kendi Taylor and Pam Irwin. Standing: Saudia Roundtree, Brandi Decker, Tracy Henderson, Signe Antvorskov, La'Keshia Frett, Tiffany Walker and Tracy Walls.

The 1996 Lady Bulldogs became the first team in the storied history of Georgia Basketball to win an SEC regular-season title and advance to the NCAA Final Four.

Georgia – and eventual National Player of the Year Saudia Roundtree – took the nation by storm in January, defeating Tennessee and Connecticut in a one-week span to vault to a No. 1 national ranking.

Despite being one of only two teams to be ranked No. 1 during the campaign, the Lady Dogs were seeded No. 2 in the Midwest Regional behind Louisiana Tech, the only other team to be No. 1 that season.

Georgia topped the Lady Techsters by 14 and then led Stanford by as many as 17 late in the second half of the NCAA semis but then fell short of the national title.

Seniors Brandi Decker, La'Keshia Frett, Tracy Henderson, Kedra Holland-Corn, Rachel Powell and Tiffany Walker – the most celebrated recruiting class in the history of women's basketball – capped their collegiate careers in fine fashion.

Those six standouts helped UGA capture its second consecutive SEC title with an impressive 11-1 record in league play.

Georgia won a thrilling 94-93 overtime decision over Tennessee in Knoxville in December in a rematch of the previous season's national title game and then won its last nine SEC games en route to edging Alabama for the league title.

The Lady Dogs' quest for a national title ended with a loss to No. 3 Stanford in the "Elite Eight" in Missoula, Mont.

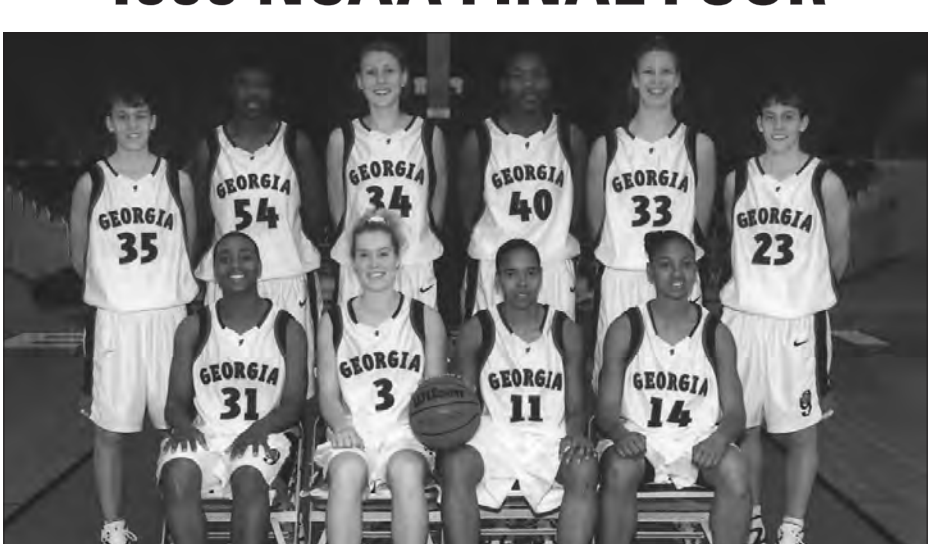
1999 NCAA FINAL FOUR



Seated (L-R): Camille Murphy, Pam Irwin-Osbolt, Kiesha Brown and Deana "Tweety" Nolan. Standing: Coco Miller, Shavonda Willis, Elena Vishniakova, Tawana McDonald, Angie Ball and Kelly Miller.

With Georgia's storied NCAA Tournament history, it should come as no surprise when the Lady Bulldogs make a deep run into "March Madness." However, the accomplishments of the 1999 Lady Dogs – with just one senior in their ranks – would have to rank as the most startling.

The Lady Dogs were enjoying a very solid season in late January when they inexplicably lost four of their next five games. In the process, Georgia fell from No. 4 to No. 14 in the national polls.

The Lady Bulldogs quickly reemerged. A 25-point win at Florida ignited Georgia, and the Lady Dogs served notice they would be a post-season force when they led Tennessee by nine late in the first half of the SEC Tourney final.

After upsetting second-seeded Clemson in the Midwest Regional semis, Kelly Miller exploded in the "Elite Eight" matchup with Iowa State, scoring 18 in the first 12:40 of the game as Georgia built a 31-20 lead and would never be challenged.

The 1999-2000 edition of the Lady Bulldogs raced from the gates and eventually finished as the winningest team in the program's storied history.

Before December arrived on the calendar, Georgia compiled a 7-0 record, including defeating three top-20 teams en route to winning the Preseason WNIT.

The Lady Dogs lost their SEC opener but then reeled off 13 straight conference victories to claim a third league title in a five-year span. The highlight of that streak was a nationally televised 27-point thumping of No. 2 Tennessee on MLK Day.

UGA's 32 "Ws" topped the previous school record of 30 in 1984 and '86.

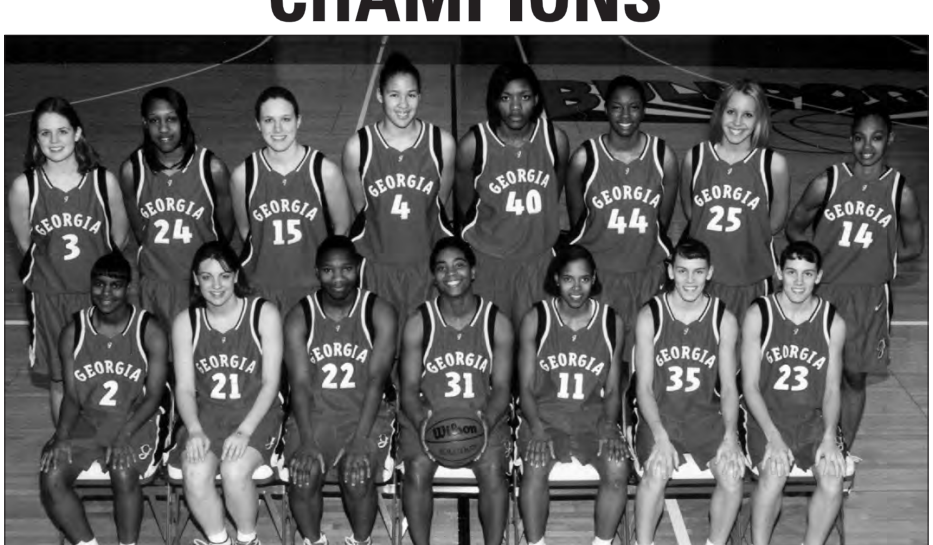
2001 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS



Seated (L-R): Tina Taylor, Kelly McEntire, Tameiko Washington, Camille Murphy, Kiesha Brown, Coco Miller, Kelly Miller. Standing: Mary Beth Lycett, Tiaunna Briggans, Amy King, Christi Thomas, Tawana McDonald, Ebony Felder, Beth Henson and Deanna Nolan.

The Lady Bulldogs bounced back from early-season losses to No. 1 Connecticut and eventual national champion Notre Dame in November to click on all cylinders a month later.

A broken finger to Deanna "Tweety" Nolan disrupted what might have been one of Georgia's greatest seasons ever.

Georgia began the calendar year with two impressive wins before Nolan broke her finger against Florida. While the Lady Dogs still won eight of nines game without Nolan, and eight of 10 after she returned, they never regained their January form.

Still, Georgia won the SEC Tourney title on Kelly Miller's buzzer-beating jumper.

NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD

TERESA EDWARDS 2011

The Silver Anniversary Award recognizes distinguished individuals on the 25th anniversary of the conclusion of their college athletics careers. Edwards became UGA's fourth honoree, joining Fran Tarkenton (1986), Thomas Lyons (1996) and Kathyrn McMinn (2009).

SEC FEMALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

SAUDIA ROUNDTREE – 1996

In addition to being 1996 National Player of the Year, Saudia Roundtree was named the top female student-athlete in the SEC for all sports in balloting of the league's 12 institutions. Roundtree is one of five Georgia female student-athletes to win the award since its inception in 1984, joining golfer Vicki Goetze (1992), swimmer Kristy Kowal (2000), gymnast Courtney Kupets (2009) and swimmer Allison Schmitt (2013).

NAISMITH HALL OF FAME

TERESA EDWARDS – 2011

Teresa Edwards was inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame in August 2011. Upon taking the stage at Springfield's Symphony Hall, Edwards immediately spoke to Andy Landers, her coach and mentor at the UGA.

"OK, Coach Landers....I'm nervous now," Edwards joked. "I never knew I could be here. I'm beginning to feel the prestige of the moment."

After thanking numerous groundbreakers in women's basketball, Edwards talked about watching Julius "Dr. J" Irving and attempting to emulate his abilities on a "basketball goal" consisting of a bicycle tire nailed to a pine tree and Michael Jordan, who she called the greatest player ever.

"After tonight, I'm forever changed because you recognized my name with my game," Edwards said. "For Coach...the University of Georgia...for everyone from Cairo...we're in the Hall of Fame, baby."

KATRINA McCLAIN – 2012

Katrina McClain was enshrined into the Naismith Hall of Fame in September 2012.

"What an honor," McClain said. "I am so proud and humbled to be a part of such an amazing group of athletes who have meant so much to the game. I have so many people to thank."

After opening by recognizing her family, McClain then turned to individuals who have meant the most to her career, including Andy Landers.

"I remember when he was recruiting me, Coach Landers told me I could be the greatest player in the world," McClain said. "He also told me if I wanted easy don't come to Georgia. Coach Landers helped me really realize that you had to go out there and work hard. Coach helped us all understand that education came first. He stressed that, that we were there to get an education. And if we didn't get that, we didn't get to play."

The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame's mission is to "honor the past, celebrate the present and promote the future" of women's basketball.

In 2006, Katrina McClain became the first former Lady Bulldog to earn induction. McClain, the 1987 National Player of the Year and a two-time All-American at UGA, also helped lead the U.S. to Gold Medals in both the 1988 and 1996 Olympics. McClain also played professionally in the U.S., Japan, Italy, Spain and Turkey.

In 2007, Andy Landers was enshrined in the Hall of Fame.
Landers, the first full-time head coach in Lady Bulldog history, is a four-time National Coach of the Year honoree and ranks among the game's leaders in virtually every statistic imaginable.

In 2010, as soon as she has completed the mandatory five years of retirement before induction, Teresa Edwards became the third Lady Bulldog representative in the hall. Edwards is the only U.S. basketball player – male or female – to play in five Olympic Games and captured four Gold Medals.

In 2015, Janet Harris, who helped bring Georgia to national prominence in the early-1980s, was officially enshrined into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. Harris was the first player to ever record 2,500 points and 1,250 rebounds as a three-time WBCA All-American.

U.S. OLYMPIC HALL OF FAME

TERESA EDWARDS – 2009

Teresa Edwards' bittersweet acceptance speech drew a standing ovation during ceremonies inducting her into the United States Olympic Hall of Fame.

The former Lady Bulldog thanked those who helped her along the way during her career, first mentioning Andy Landers and all her former teammates. Edwards then spoke of Katrina McClain before individuallyhonoring her deceased father and her mother, Mildred, who was in attendance.

Edwards then turned to closing the book on her glorious career on the hardwood.

"To accept this honor this evening for me is to say goodbye to the true love of my life," Edwards stated.

Edwards is one of only three American athletes – along with Carl Lewis and Lisa Leslie – to win Gold Medals at four separate Games and holds the unique honor of being both the youngest (20 in 1984) and oldest (36 in 2000) women's basketball player to capture Olympic Gold.

FIBA HALL OF FAME

Teresa Edwards, the most decorated basketball player in Olympic history, was enshrined in the FIBA Hall of Fame in June 2013 in ceremonies in Mies, Switzerland.

"What can I say? It took me all around the world," Edwards said. "Now the FIBA Hall of Fame is calling me home to stay forever. Who in their right mind wouldn't be excited about this?"

Edwards helped the U.S. win four gold medals and a bronze in her five Olympics from 1984-2000, making her the most decorated Olympic basketball player ever. Oscar Schmidt of Brazil and Andrew Gaze of Australia played in five Olympics but never won a medal. Edwards also holds the unique distinction of being both the youngest and oldest women's basketball player to ever win Olympic gold.

Edwards was among 12 members of the 2013 FIBA Hall of Fame class. Other inductees include: players Jean-Jacques Conceiçao (Angola), Andrew Gaze (Australia), Paula Gonçalves (Brazil), David Robinson (USA) and Zoran Slavnic (Serbia); coaches John 'Jack' Donohue (Canada), Cesare Rubini (Italy) and Pat Summitt (USA); technical officials Valentin Lazarov (Bulgaria) and Costas Rigas (Greece); and contributor Aldo Vitale (Italy).

ALL-TIME TEAM

In conjunction with the 25th season of Lady Bulldog Basketball in 1997-98, former letterwinners selected Georgia's all-time team. The squad was announced during the "Silver Celebration of Excellence" on Nov. 30, 1997, when more than 80 former players and staff returned to Athens for an NCAA/ABL doubleheader.

The afternoon included a 70-67 win by Georgia over Clemson and an Atlanta Glory victory over the Portland Power. The ABL tilt displayed the impact UGA has had in the development of women's professional basketball in the U.S., with no less than five former Lady Bulldogs on those ABL rosters.

The cast of players chosen was as impressive as the Lady Dogs record during the past quarter-century, with the unit supporting six Olympic Gold Medals, two National Players of the Year, 15 All-America certificates, two SEC Players of the Year and two SEC Tourney MVP Trophies.

"That's a team I'd like to coach," Andy Landers said. "I'd stack that group up against any 25th anniversary team of any program in the nation."

PIPELINE TO THE PROS

Georgia Lady Bulldogs have long been prominent figures in the professional ranks, both in the United States and overseas. All told, 50 Lady Bulldogs have gone on to play basketball professionally, including 26 in the WNBA.

Deanna Nolan is the most decorated Georgia alum in the WNBA. She was a perennial All-Star, helped the Detroit Shock to three WNBA titles, and was named the MVP of the 2006 WNBA Finals.

Former Georgia players also are making their mark on the sideline. Teresa Edwards was the interim head coach of the Tulsa Shock in 2011 and the Atlanta Dream in 2014, while Bernadette Mattox and Lady Grooms were assistant coaches for Connecticut and New York, respectively.

UGA & USA BASKETBALL: A GOLDEN COMBO

Rarely over the past two decades has a United States National Team entered a major international competition without one or more Georgia Lady Bulldog included as a key ingredient on the roster.

Teresa Edwards and Katrina McClain headline an impressive list of 25 Lady Bulldogs who have represented USA Basketball in more than 40 different competitions worldwide.

Edwards and McClain were the backbone of virtually every U.S. team fielded for a major competition from 1986-96 and compiled a 109-4 (.965) record in USA Basketball competitions.

Edwards, who first played at the national level during the summer after her junior season of high school, is the only basketball player to represent the U.S. in five Olympic Games. All told, she was a member of 22 different USA Basketball teams, compiling an overall record of 205-14 (93.6). Along the way, Edwards compiled some incredible statistics – 2,008 points, 890 assists, 576 rebounds and 372 steals.

McClain is perhaps the most decorated international performer other that Edwards. In fact, they first played together during the summer before McClain's arrival at Georgia, leading the South to a Gold Medal at the 1983 U.S. Olympic Festival. McClain capped her international career at the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta by averaging 14.1 points and posting team-bests of 8.3 rebounds per game and 63.9 percent field goal percentage.

OH, CANADA: LADY DOGS & MAPLE LEAVES

Two former Lady Bulldogs have represented their native nation of Canada in international competiton.

Angie Ball, a native of Scarsborough near Toronto, was a standout for Georgia from 1997-2000. She was a freshman on the Lady Bulldogs' 1997 SEC Championship team and was a starter on Georgia's 1999 NCAA Final Four squad and 2000 SEC Championship team that secured a school-record 23 victories.

Ball was a member of the 15-player Canadian National Team during both 1998 and 1999.

Jaleesa Rhoden, a native of the Toronto suberb of London, was a fixture on the Canadian Junior National Team for several years.

In 2004, Rhoden represented Canada at the Confederation of Pan American Basketball Associations (COPABA) qualifying tournament for the 2005 U19 World Championships.

The following year, Rhoden took part in those World Championships in Tunisia.

After a redshirt season at Georgia in 2006-07 due to a knee injury, Rhoden saw her first competitive action in more than a year when she helped Canada to a ninth-place showing at the 2007 U19 World Championships in Slovakia.

Tasha Humphrey was the second-leading scorer for the Gold Medal-winning U.S. team at the 2007 Pan American Games in Rio de Janeiro. She had double figures in four of five outings to average 11.6 points.
